

Statesville High School Presentation

Tuesday, December 14, 2021 By: Hannah Tuthill

What is an Apprenticeship program?

- Apprenticeship: is an industry-driven, high quality career pathway where employers can develop and prepare their future workforce, and individuals can obtain paid work experience, classroom instruction, and a portable, national-recognized credential.
 - Earn while you learn

Overview of Apprenticeship Iredell Program

- Started in Fall 2020
- Current number of apprentices: 3
- Current number employer partners: 2
- Program of Study: Mechatronics

Apprentice earns college credential, Apprentice hired as full industry-recognized time employee with local credentials embedded employer into programs, and BUSINESS INVOLVEMENT national journey Employers are the foundation of every Registered worker credential Apprenticeship program NATIONAL OCCUPATIONAL What are the ON-THE-JOB Experienced TRAINING Apprentices receive Components of employee mentors on-the-job training from an experienced and trains apprentice Registered nentor for typically not less than one year. Apprenticeship? REWARDS FOR SKILL GAINS Apprentices receive RELATED INSTRUCTION increases in wages as they gain higher level skills. Apprentice enrolls in Wage increases based 04 degree program at on time or Mitchell competencies

Benefits for Students

Earn while you learn Debt free education Journeyman certificate A.A.S degree from Mitchell Support from start to finish on both educational and employment sides Guarantee wage increase Employment security

Process for Students

Contact Information & Questions

- htuthill@mitchellcc.edu
- (704) 878-4263

